Prayer to the Holy Spirit, Giver of Life

Come Holy Spirit, Creator of all things...You who breathed over the waters at the dawn of creation and brought forth all living beings...You who filled the apostles when the Risen Lord breathed on them on the first Easter night, giving them the power to restore life to those dead in sin...You who, on the last day, will breathe again over all the dead and raise them from the grave--Come! Come and breathe on our world again, immersed as it is in the Culture of Death! Come, O Lord and Giver of Life! Defeat the works of death in our midst, that abortion may no longer stain our land. We worship You, O Holy Spirit, and we rejoice in You. We know that no matter how strong the forces of death may be, we can still find in You the endless source of life. Renew that life in each of us, and make us worthy apostles of the Culture of Life in our day!
Amen.

13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Praying

Praying is our “lifeline” to God. Only through prayer can we truly listen to the voice of God and respond to him in love. Only through prayer, both public and private, do we gain the courage we need to allow His Word to take root in our lives and the strength we need to live as followers of Jesus Christ.

Although prayer is crucial, many people profess that they have great trouble finding the time to pray or to keeping their attention focused while at prayer.

Prayer, of course, is not simply an obligation, it is also a gift. The Lord reaches out to open our hearts to Him and makes it possible to respond to His invitations. Praying gives us a fresh appreciation for prayer as a gift from God, drawing us to give of ourselves in order to fulfill our longing for Him.

Scripture teaches us that God’s Holy will is not far from us, our search for God need not lead us to distant shores and dizzy heights. We find God here and now, in the time and place where we are living. The search for God must necessarily go on in our day-to-day existence.

May we readily and joyously respond to God’s living invitation by opening our hearts to him each day in prayer.

--Excerpts from James Cardinal Hickey, Archbishop of Washington DC
